

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Openness to All, Inclusive Outlook Strengthen Iraqi Society Unity

As part of the visit to Babil Governorate, the land of civilization and history, His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance and Leader of Al-Hikma National Movement, met a group of organizational leaders of Al-Hikma National Movement in Babil, recalling with them the historic relationship between the family of Imam Al-Hakeem (may his soul be sanctified) and the people of Babil. H.E. explained that affiliation with the martyred leaders through their project takes precedence over affiliation by blood, and placed on the members of Al-Hikma National Movement the responsibility of championing the project of the martyred leaders, calling for engaging with the public, serving them, and staying close to them. H.E. explained that Al-Hikma National Movement possesses a shining history, a farsighted vision, social acceptance, and closeness to the public, free of any electoral interest or agenda.

H.E. stressed the importance of societal communication among the components, given its role in the integration of the Iraqi people, explaining that all components in all governorates have an experience, a stance, and a memory with Imam Al-Hakeem (may his soul be sanctified). H.E. called for taking pride in this trait, distinguishing between political duties and social duties, and viewing everyone with an inclusive outlook that is open to them, stressing a down-to-earth character and humility as a natural extension of the path of the eminent martyrs. H.E. also stressed the importance of showcasing the movement's identity and taking pride in it, calling for explaining the position and breaking down the situation for the public.
