

Hakim to Kubiš: the Popular Mobilization Forces Act ensures its rights and organizes its actions

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al- Hakim, stressed that the Iraqi House of Representatives adopting the Popular Mobilization Forces Act will guarantee of the rights of its affiliates and will organize their work, pointing out that the law will guarantee the rights of who responded the call and was affiliated under the flag of the popular mobilization forces and will look after their martyrs, in addition to organizing the work of this national military strike force within the national system under the supervision of the commander in chief of the armed forces.

\r\n

This took place during his eminence meeting with Representative of the Secretary General of the United Nations, Mr. Jan Kubiš in his office Sunday, 27.11.2016.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim discussed with Kubis the national settlement initiative to exit the political crisis to reach an overall stability that is satisfactory for all the Iraqi people, noting that the Iraqis have only to take the path of settlement during the post-Daesh and the National Iraqi Alliance leaders have declared their support to this settlement which have the foundations of state building on the basis of mutual rights and duties.

\r\n

Kubiš For his part, reflected the prominent attention given to the historic national settlement initiative among the parties, explaining that he had heard different points of view and was replied by showing their interest and support for its success.