

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim renews his support Supreme Religious Authority guidance regarding election law and electoral commission law

Head of the Al-Hikma National Movement, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, reiterated his full support for the sound guidance presented by the Supreme Religious Authority, especially with regard to expedite enacting a fair electoral law that does not monopolize political decision, and an electoral commission characterized by professionalism, independence and integrity. His eminence emphasized that this demand will regain the trust of the people and participation in running the state through executive and legislative sites.

His eminence indicated that the Al-Hikma National Movement will do its best to answer this demand, pointed out that the Al-Hikma National Movement supports the legitimate demands of peaceful demonstrators, and warned of complacency and procrastination, and "We will work with other parliamentary blocs to answer the demands within the specified time frame".